Correspondence – Emma Picton Jones – DPJ Foundation – It was agreed to send contacts to secretaries and clubs for a members' night but was suggested that some members may be very young and perhaps inviting Emma Picton Jones to the leaders training night would be beneficial so that leaders could hear what she had to say.

9. Any Other Business

Mrs Edna Davies has decided to retire as junior public speaking trainer in both the English and the Welsh Competitions therefore we need to propose new names. Non thanked Edna for her hard work and congratulated her on the many successful years as a trainer.

Katie Davies was proposed to take over the English section.

Arwel Evans was proposed to take over the Welsh Section with Sue Phillips named as a reserve.

Chief Stewards

Nia asked if we could continue with the same system as last year for the Public Speaking days with 2 chief stewards for the two sections. It was agreed to ask Edna Davies to take on the English section and Eirlys Davies to undertake the Welsh section.

Sign – Wales YFC have mentioned a sign competition with a £100 donation to make a sign advertising the Winter Fair. On the same sort of format as the rally sign competition. It was discussed and agreed to invite Templeton as the club who won the sign competition at rally to undertake the competition. If they were unable it was agreed that the 2nd in the competition be approached.

Sports Co-ordinator Eirlys Davies asked that as there was no cup presented in the touch rugby and Frisbee competitions during the sports that it would be a nice gesture to present certificates at the County AGM to those teams especially as they involved juniors. Nia noted that the certificates had been done and were ready in the office.
